

{ Sample Itinerary 3 - 7 Days of Fishing }

- Day 1 - Arrive in Bariloche, your Esquel Outfitters guide will meet you at the airport and transfer to Lodge El Trebol in Cholila. Travel time to Cholila is 2 hours. Dinner served at El Trebol, overnight there.
- Day 2 - Float Fish the Rivadavia, located in Los Alerces National Park. Your first day of fishing will include the floating this beautiful river and walk/wading a couple small spring creeks. The Rivadavia runs for about 7 miles through Alerces National Park. It is considered by many to be one of the most beautiful rivers in the world.
- Day 3 - You will Float-fish the Rio Carrileufu, which runs through the spectacular Cholila Valley. You will float about 11 miles this day, taking in the scenery of the part of Patagonia that was once home to Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid.
- Day 4 - Float Fish the Rio Arrayanes and Lago Verde in Los Alerces National Park. You will start the day fishing to the reeds and shoreline of Lago Verde. By the afternoon you will drop into the beginning of the Rio Arrayanes.
- Day 5 - Transfer in the AM to Rio Gualjaina and our Exclusive Estancia La Elvira. This Estancia has over 20 miles of river. Travel time is approx 2 hours. After a full day of fishing you will stay at the Estancia for the remainder of your trip.
- Day 6 - Walk wade the private spring creek Arroyo Pescado. Travel time from the Estancia is 15 minutes. This private spring creek is probably the most famous in Argentina. Our lodge is located only 15 minutes from the creek, and gives us first and last shots at the fishing, on a daily basis.
- Day 7 - Walk/wade another day on the Rio Gualjaina. With over 20 miles of water, you will need a second day to fish the Rio Gualjaina. The river braids into small channels numerous times, providing over 30 river miles of incredible dry fly fishing.
- Day 8 - Float Fish Rio Grande. The Rio Grande is the only tailwater in our region, and is the best brown trout fishing in the area. A full day float on this river will take you from below the dam, to almost the Chilean border.
- Day 9 - Shuttle to Bariloche for Departing flights.
